

Maidstone Wargames Society (the Society) data policy

The Society holds a very limited amount of personal data.

This data is limited to what is needed to allow the running of membership subscriptions, and enable communication of Society AGMs, events and meetings.

This data is held by Committee members, and can be viewed by other members of the Society. The Society has a process to ask members annually at the AGM for any updates to their details (address, email and phone number) to assist in maintaining accurate and up to date data.

This data is not shared with any third parties without permission from the individual concerned.

Data from members who have left the organisation will be deleted upon their request, or after membership has lapsed for three years.

The Society is aware that a large number of members use the Maidstone Wargames Society Yahoo Group, usage of this Group comes under Yahoo's terms and conditions which include GDPR policies, members should be familiar with these if they wish to use the Group.

Current members have been informed of this data policy, and this will also be communicated to any new members when joining.
